

The Global Impact of the Great Depression

High unemployment,
unwilling to get involved
in international disputes

Worried by the Nazis, begins building a series
of frontier defenses

Unwilling to support economic sanctions as long as international trade is in such a mess

WALL STREET CRASH

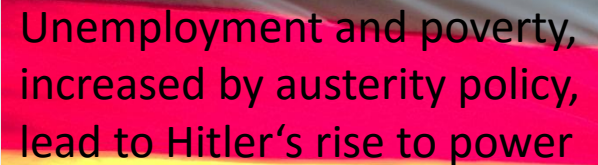

GREAT DEPRESSION

ECONOMIC PROBLEMS
THROUGHOUT THE WORLD

CHANGES IN THE RELATIONS BETWEEN COUNTRIES AND WITHIN COUNTRIES

Unemployment and poverty,
increased by austerity policy,
lead to Hitler's rise to power

Building of an overseas empire in Africa distracts people's attention from economic difficulties

Military expansion in China as a means to prevent the economy from complete collapse
